Dr Paul Bartley retires as Queensland Lieutenant

After 8 years of dedicated service to the Order, Dr Paul Bartley stepped down from the Lieutenancy of Queensland. To mark the occasion, an inaugural ceremony was held during MASS on the 23rd June 2012 at St Patrick’s Fortitude Valley celebrated by the new Archbishop of Brisbane His Grace Mark Coleridge, followed by a Dinner at Tattersall’s Club Many dignitaries attended.

Peter Carroll was born in Brisbane of Irish migrant parents, the eldest of five children. (The reason that his parents decided to reside in Brisbane was because his father’s aunt was a Sister of Mercy who, after doing her Nursing training at the Mater Hospital in Dublin, migrated to Brisbane with four other Sisters of Mercy and established the Brisbane Mater Hospital in 1905. She remained in Brisbane until her death in the early 1950s).

Peter was educated at St Peter & Paul Convent, Bulimba (by the Sisters of the Good Samaritan) and then by the Christian Brothers at Gregory Terrace.

Peter is a graduate of the University of Queensland (B Comm.) and Macquarie University (LLB). (cont. Page 2)
A Chartered Accountant by profession he was a partner for many years in the international Accounting Firm Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu (“Deloitte”).

Peter has been married to Lucia for nearly 40 years and has 5 adult children and the 10 Grandchildren.

Since retiring from Deloitte, Peter has been a Director of two companies listed on the Australian Stock Exchange and a number of other unlisted public companies as well as a number of private companies.

He was on the Committee of Tattersall’s Club from 2002 to 2007 and was President from 2004 to 2007. Peter has been a member of Boards of a number of other not for profit entities and currently is President of the Sunnybank Rugby Club (trading as Sunnybank Community and Sports Club) which is the largest Licensed Club in Queensland.

Peter is also the Deputy Chairman of Centacare, the social welfare arm of the Archdiocese of Brisbane.

Peter is looking forward to his term as Lieutenant of Queensland and thanks Dr Paul Bartley for his mentoring in the past and in the future.

July 31, 2012

Ref. No. 321/2012-P

Ns. Rif. AB/gt

To the Members of the Grand Magisterium

To the Lieutenants and Magistral Delegates

Your Excellency and dear Confrere, as already mentioned, I wish to inform you that the next Consulta of the Order will take place in Rome from September 10 to 12, 2013 (arrival on September 9) to coincide with the International Pilgrimage of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem in the Year of Faith to be held from September 13 to 15, 2013 (arrival the 12 and departure the 16). Those who wish so, have the opportunity to attend a Pilgrimage preparation program starting on September 10 without the presence of the Lieutenants and Magistral Delegates who will be working at the Consulta on the same days.

The events will follow an outline program already developed and approved by His Excellency Monsignor Rino Fisichella, President of the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization, who inserted the Order’s Pilgrimage in the official calendar of the Year of Faith.

Given the uniqueness of this event and the privilege granted to us being our Order the only Order admitted to the official celebrations, I recommend your Excellency to spread the news as much as possible among the Knights and Dames of your Lieutenancy in order to achieve the highest possible attendance.

Confirmation of attendance needs to be sent to the Secretariat of the Grand Magisterium (per e-mail to gmag@oessh.va or via fax to +39 06 68802298) as soon as possible being the rooms only temporarily booked. A definitive answer will be necessary in order to assure the participants on the availability of the accommodation at the rates listed in the attached table.

Every Lieutenancy is kindly requested to send a list of names of the single attendants to our Secretariat. The latter will then forward the list to the Unione Nazionale Italiana Trasporto Ammalati Lourdes e Santuari Internazionali (U.N.I.T.A.L.S.I.) which is in charge of the event’s planning and coordination. Further information on payment modalities and timing will then be sent to you directly by U.N.I.T.A.L.S.I.

Those who take part individually in the pilgrimage and are willing to share a double room, need to inform reciprocally the Secretariat on who will be his roommate, otherwise the organization self will allocate the beds in the double rooms.

Waiting for your reply and your list of names, please accept the expression of my kindest regards.

Agostina Borromeo  Governor General

we have tried to give the event a tone of severity suitable to the spirit of an authentic Christian Pilgrimage. For this reason, the category of luxury hotels has been deliberately excluded.

Terms of participation (in part).

a. The participants will have to avoid themselves of the hotels which have already been booked. Buses (whose cost is already included in the fee) will leave from and return to the selected hotels and only to them. This includes Fiumicino airport transfers.

b. The allocation of the groups will guarantee that the members of the same Lieutenancy are accommodated in the same hotel (4 or 3 category).

c. It is important that the participants subscribe as soon as possible, booking late will risk not finding a place and consequently not to be taken care of by the organization. It is good to remember that the Pilgrimage takes place in a period of high peak tourism and we already know that in the same days other events will take place in Rome.

d. Lieutenants and Magistral Delegates will be accommodated for the Consulta at Crowne Plaza Hotel, and then they will have to transfer to the hotel (or to one of the hotels) allocated to their Lieutenancy.

f. Neither the organizing board nor, least of all, the Secretariat of the Order can take in charge the subscription to the Pilgrimage of those who intend to make personal plans for their stay in Rome. Those who do not want to pay for the established fees will certainly not be excluded from the religious events, but the Order does not take charge of them.

Agostina Borromeo  Governor General
We wish our illustrious Ecclesiastical Master of Ceremonies Reverend Dr Adrian Farrelly a speedy recovery after quadruple by-pass surgery on 3rd August. May he soon get back to his flock and golf.

Apostolic Nuncio posted to Israel

Pope Benedict XVI has named Archbishop Giuseppe Lazzarotto, the Apostolic nuncio to Australia, to be the new nuncio to Israel and apostolic delegate in Jerusalem and the Palestinian territories, according to a report by the Catholic News Service published by NCR Online.

The appointment of the 70-year-old career Vatican diplomat was announced on Saturday.

Lazzarotto, who had served at the Vatican diplomatic mission in Israel from 1982-84, told Vatican Radio he was looking forward to returning, though he recognizes being nuncio is “an important challenge.”

“It is a challenge I accept with joy because I think it’s important to continue the work that my predecessors did with great commitment and generosity,” he told the radio.

Lazzarotto succeeds Archbishop Antonio Franco, 75, who retired after six years in the past.

The new nuncio said his hope is that the commitment to dialogue and peace, a commitment shared by the vast majority of people living in the Holy Land, will continue to grow and that people would work each day, “step by step, so that the path toward peace finally would be open to all.”

Lazzarotto has served in Australia since 2007. Before that, he was nuncio to Ireland for seven years.

During Mass on 15th September with Principal Celebrant Archbishop Mark Coleridge Archbishop of Brisbane, at St Patrick’s the Valley, the Coadjutor Grand Prior Bishop Joseph Oudeman DD KC*HS invested Knights Fr Paul Catchlove, Mr Michael Greene and Mr Karl Morris into the Order as Knights. The Saint Joseph’s College Gregory Terrace Choir sang at the Mass and the Archbishop graded them second only to the Saint Lawrence’s choir in prankley jest.

The Investiture was followed by a formal dinner at the Tattersall's Club. The day was preceded by the usual vigil ceremony at St Patrick’s Church.
